

Teaming Up

Teams

- A group of people working together to accomplish a task

Engineers and Programmers

- To make our robots work, everyone needs to be an engineer or a programmer
- These two groups share ideas and work together

Specialist Jobs

- Project Manager
- Communications Specialist
- Materials Specialist
- Information Specialist

Project Manager

- Will lead the team
- Has to know the roles and responsibilities of everyone else on the team
- Helps to identify who does what on the project
- Helps to make sure everyone is doing their job

Communications Specialist

- Responsible for documenting and scheduling
- Takes lead on preparing schedules and presentations
- Takes notes during meetings, and distributes information to team members and to teacher

Materials Specialist

- Responsible for resources the team needs and uses
- Manage materials to make sure everything is stored correctly and nothing is missing

Information Specialist

- Responsible for finding answers to any team questions
- Knows that the two biggest resources a problem solver can use are people and information

How Jobs Are Selected

- Team will decide
- Lottery?
- You need to be flexible in your roles in order to complete your job for the good of the team